Join Our Property Standards Committee

Are you passionate about maintaining the beauty and safety of our community? Do you have a keen eye for detail and a commitment to upholding the highest property standards? If so, we invite you to become a valued member of our Property Standards Committee!

Why Join Our Committee?

- Make A Difference – as a member of our Property Standards Committee, you will play a vital role in shaping and maintaining the aesthetic appeal and safety of our community.
- Enhance Your Expertise – gain valuable insights into property regulations, zoning, and building codes, while collaborating with like-minded individuals who share your dedication to excellence.
- Build Connections – Forge meaningful connections with fellow committee members, local officials, and residents while working together to create a better living environment for all.
- Influence Change – Your input will directly impact property standards and help create a more attractive, secure, and desirable community for everyone.

Qualifications

- Must reside within the Township of Amaranth
- Dedication to community improvement
- Effective communication and teamwork skills
- Willingness to commit time and effort to committee responsibilities

The term of committee appointment would be until October 2026, or when the committee is no longer required.

To apply for a volunteer position on the Township's Property Standards Committee, please submit a completed application (on reverse), that outlines how you can contribute to the committee, that you meet the resident qualification and what you hope the committee will be able to accomplish.

Applications should be forwarded to the attention of CAO/Clerk Nicole Martin at info@amaranth.ca or put in the drop box at 374028 6th Line, Amaranth, ON L9W 0M6 by 4pm on Wednesday November 15, 2023.
