

2018 Workshops

for rural landowners

Flagship Workshop

An essential workshop to help you make the most of your rural property.

Caring for Your Land and Water – Free

Find out about the challenges facing the local environment and connect your land to practical solutions. Create a personalized plan with help from CVC's stewardship specialists. Learn about attracting wildlife, protecting your well, healthy habitats and funds to start your project.

Wednesday, May 2
6:30 p.m. - 9 p.m.
Terra Cotta Conservation Area

Wednesday, Aug. 15
6:30 p.m. - 9 p.m.
Monora Park Pavilion, Mono

Register:
cvc.ca/events or
1-800-668-5557

Get workshop details delivered right to your inbox. Sign up for the countryside stewardship mail at cvc.ca/csmail

Specialty Workshops

Advanced workshops to delve deeper into topics. Presented by CVC and partner experts.

Healthy Horse Farms Twilight Tour – Free

Learn strategies to improve your paddocks

Are you tired of muddy and weedy paddocks? See first-hand how a small horse farm is improving their manure and pasture management practices and protecting the health of the natural environment. CVC's agricultural specialist will answer your questions and provide guidance.

Thursday, Jul. 19
7 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Sideroad 27, Terra-Cotta

Forests for the Future Twilight Tour – Free

Learn the formula for great forests

Have you ever wanted to grow your own forest? See how a rural couple is creating their own treed oasis, adding value to their property and protecting the environment. Learn about tree planting and the foundations to growing a healthy forest with CVC's forestry expert.

Thursday, Aug. 23
6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Kennedy Road, Caledon

'Ghost' Wetland Workshop – $15

Learn the telltale signs of 'ghost' wetlands

Discover if you have a hidden wetland on your land. CVC's wetland expert will show you how to read the landscape to identify wetland remnants and where they can be restored. See how local landowners are bringing these invaluable wildlife habitats back to life.

Saturday, Jun. 2
9:30 a.m. - noon
Terra Cotta Community Centre